Yeah, msgtpain also has a habit of banning people who aren't "known cheaters" without a shred of proof and in a most despicable way.. from the server, IRC and forums, because he can't back up his claims and can't handle the fact that he's wrong.

Yeah I may be beating the dead horse still but I feel I've heard this jackass talk out of his ass long enough...

What... with him banning people from their "favorite server" they will just leave Renegade.

Good job, msgtpain... kill off a game quicker than the cheaters do, you make us proud!

One less server EA will need to run.

:rolleyes:
