I think you should get the strongest unit possible with your starting credits (not wasteing to much of course) totally trash there harvester kill a few people before comeing back...

Then get whatever unit u like best(provided you have enough credits) trash there tanks then take out there refinery then there power plant (if not the base defences) the airstrip/war factory should be next followed by the barracks/hon and then your done...

BAasicly what you just said but a little less VAGUE!!!

No offence .
