Only if you mean that they're being paid by the same entity as organized, then yes, they're organized.

Fighting for their country? Wrong. They're fighting for the people who are paying them to DIE for their country. Not fight. They don't expect to come out alive. They go in to kill Americans and make money for their families.

Taking risks? They're killing themselves. There is no "risk" involved. They kill themselves, take as many people with them as they can, and get money for their family. Seems pretty straight forward.

You're comparing occupied France rising up against the NAZI army with the Iraqi rebels who are killing themselves to kill Americans in "jihad". Yeah...they're EXACTLY the same...
