thank you so much laeubi, burn, and big wig. i asked a simple question and got an answer paragraphs long. very informative ok i have only one more question now... this innate aggressiveness thing that is set on 0.500 by default... what is the highest i can set that on? im pretty lost at that part- and can you kinda describe to me what it does?

(i know, its self explanatory but id like to get more info on it)
