i didnt say he knew anything like that. I simply said that he knows this game in and out and professes at catching cheaters and to show more respect than to call him "dickweed" upon his first 3 posts in these forums. under this name anyway.

and if you look at my post i agree with you J_ball, but that is not a reason to criticize him for thinking otherwise. nod (not servnt) knew comming in that this would be a controversial post as these types ALWAYS are.
