I am always so astonished by how many people dont know that. The Allah they refer to is translated to "God" in English and all the three major religions stem from this same Monotheistic [sic] Being. Look it up, All three Religions form from the Patriarch Abraham if im correct.

He's completely right. Christianity, Judaism and Islam have the same God (Allah, Jehovah whatever) Christianity and Islam stem from Judaism. However while Christians believe Jesus was God's son Muslims and Jews believe he was a prophet. Jews believe Moses was the most important prophet while Muslims believe Abraham was (I think) these three diverging beliefs are the problem in Palestine (along with land claims)...that and the fact the Islam is a lot less tolerant of other religions and beliefs.
