It doesn't matter what he does , It's just a game. It's not like he can do any real damage.

So... He read on a forum about a gltich and uses it? So what , That doesn't make him a hacker. All he wants is to feel like he has power , Which he has none.

If you have a dynamic IP , That doesn't mean your not tracable.

Let him do his little rant with poor english. Until this gets locked and he is banned from the forums. The best thing to do is just not reply to his comment.
