Which explains why you abandoned your position to me?

I think you may actually be dyslexic. You've repeatedly shown that you can't effectively comprehend what I've been telling you. Namely, what I specifically referred to. coughtables.

You seem to have missed the point once again. When I say See Above, I mean I've already offered an adept explanation of the topic directly above this one. I could either do that or copy & paste. You have a bit of a habit of re-iterating yourself, just like that website.

Now, are you going to actually think about what you're saying, or wave the white flag?
