Okay, if the join cash is set to zero(and it should be, keeps the n00b sniper bastards from racking massive kills as quick and forces the team to work together) 1 guy ain't gonna do jack crap late in the game. The most bestest 1337 pl4y3r in teh world(not me by any stretch of my fevered imagination) is worth exactly dick as a basic inf trying to kill tanks, engis or no.
