so I talked to cassie/justin on teamspeak AFTER the initial death and hacking threats. I said that the ban was NOT going to be lifted. S/he asked if I would please consider NOT banning him/her from our teamspeak server. Guys, I cant help it. I am SUCH an idiot. I didnt ban him/her from teamspeak. I figured s/he's just a kid, cut him/her some slack.

Ok. my bad. Based on this thread and the rant of hatred, the ban is back cassie/justin. Sorry dood. I tried to work with you and be nice about this, but you just had to cross the line. And you know what would be really cool. could you please enumerate the 10 things that UN did to you that were so bad?

was it helping you get your server up and running? was it letting you use our IRC server? was it letting you use our forums to advertise your forums and servers? because if thats a problem, we can stop doing that in the future for others....
