now now, I thought you didnt like to call people names Java? and wasnt it you that told me not to weasel out of things by trying to justify something by making things up? I never said anything about point blank, so that would make you the person making shit up, and I must say, you need a bigger toilet.

and no warranto, you werent supposed to attempt reading my mind, that is the point of me saying you assumed I said point blank. :rolleyes:
