This is quite possibly the most pathetically stupid cheater I've seen.

As you know, I'm administrator of NoN00bs.net servers and forums. This morning, I was in the server and noticed a player called LVL999.

He didn't really achieve much, didn't kill any buildings, didn't even get that many kills... which, as you'll soon see, is rather pathetic.

After I left, apparently he was accused of bighead. I don't know who by. He indignantly insisted that he didn't cheat, and said he'd post a screenshot to shut this n00b up.

Here's what he posted on our forums.

If you aren't registered on the forums, here's the screenshot he posted.

The stupidity of some people never ceases to baffle me. Thankfully, steps can be taken.
