(about EA):

CyberPuke

If you won't support WOL Servers ... it would be better to just take it down... then your very happy cause you won't have people complaining of those spam bots, cheaters, hackers however you wanna call it... and you could use servers for next games you create yey! the only side effect but you don't seem to care anyway after what you guys done... just leave wol die. lose loads of EA Fans... what you already lost. So if you won't support it... and won't kill it/take it down... I Cyberpunk will take care of it.

LMFAO, man this guy is a total lamer.
