my server is renguard protected why do you think i am so frustrated and in these forums. I run the NEXUS server on westwood. I have seen the mutant character in one game with shots that kill in one hit, the mutant character that was in a forum a while back for the oversized boxes around the characters <http://www.renegadeforums.com/viewtopic.php?t=13434> It was the same exact character i had seen in there I seen on my server. The other guy i had never seen b4 but in pics of the game he had one of those hats that look like there from france on and had heavy camoflage painted on his face. he was able to kill with his pistol my turrets with one hit when i was nod. he also nearly took out my artillery with two hits but i managed to high tail it.he actually met me in the tunnel and showed me. i banned him aftarward after asking him what exactly he gets out of cheating. it makes me so madd and frustrated cause you never know whos cheating and who isnt. keep an eye out for sewobmd hes a cheater. Im trying a fresh install of renegade followed by a fresh install of renguard and see if that helps.
