deadfivethat means 13503 players have played renegade. no that means there are 13002 accounts witch could belong to only 3000 users having 4 names each. I few months back I played on 4 names and was ranked 190, 2000, 5700, and 8400. There is a large number of players that have multiple accounts.

The only thing you can go by is players currently in game now.
