Go on WOL yourself, list the servers in players filter. I'm guessing no more than 100 players. Go on GameSpy yourself, list the servers in player filter. I'm guessing no more than x.

The simply add $100 + x =$ number of current 'active' players at that time.

Bare in mind, people don't have to be playing RenGuard to play Renegade, they could simply leave it idle which most probably do.
