DoitleSick O are you back for the long haul? Or are you just popping in.

I like this "crack pipe" game too much & have too many friends to give it up...I'm playin' again but with moderation.

It's like I said earlier, comradery is certainly a good reason to hang around & I understand that. However, this is a "Renegade" forum & the negativity is not needed. We know some are bored with it & that's OK, but Renegade does not "suck"...
