[HLOWTomten]glyde51 If you can, send them to glyde@trielite.net , I have no limit on my mail address as long as you have no file attachment limits.

Or I could go and set up a FTP server again.

Thought you D/L them before, but anyhow...setup an ftp server. PM me login and stuff so I can connect and upload everything.

(Need to go and look for the CD....when I got time)

I'll have to do it on Saturday or Sunday anywho, so right now you'll have to wait. Thanks.
