This is a simple non-hulking thing.

http://apocmedia.com/
The URL quickly explains what it is.

This banner explains the site, as does the URL, n00bstories.com

You don't need HULKING banners that annoy people, all you need is a little something that explains what the purpose is.

This made me go, "wtf?!"

Also, remove the links that are like "N/A" and if you want, use a WYSIWYG editor, like Nvu. I used it until I used Photoshop and Nvu screwed up my template, so, yeah... Though when I used the template you have I had no trouble whatsoever with Nvu.
