deadfiveSo what ideas do you have for me that could "Explain" my website better from the get go? I like my banner, but I will make one that is not pixleated or have someone do it for me. But what do YOU think would help make it better?

Change the text font, remove the N/A links, make a smaller, better banner that's the same size as the one that came with the template, use one topic to discuss this site, and do other stuff that anyone else suggests.
