Meh, I'm willing to give it a "sincerity vote" (If that's what you want to call it).
They haven't done anything in the past regarding false appologies of this kind, so there is no basis to assume otherwise at the moment.

I'm not saying that there is no hidden agenda (whatever it may be, if it exists), but the appology seems to be sincere.

Of course it goes without saying, you only get one chance to fool me.
