My hobbies?

making clothes and shoes in asia for half a penny per shirt, being owned by big corporations, working for smarties corp. and designing the blue smarties to get young kids hyper, making footballs from pigs' bladder, working for coca cola to help make the coke syrup that we sell on to the suppliers who then sell them to fast food restaurants, posting complete lies on forums where the majority of people don't know how to make their own dinner.
