u dont need to use download accelorator btw aslong as u get through the proxy stuff. After u download and install both (in korean btw) u need to get a few patches. untill we are able to make a good patch please talk with out officails on our TeamSpeak server "omegarots.info" The people who will help u the most are Vash, Zerreth, Oscar, and Apophis (me btw). Installing Ragnarok is a bit hard but the gaming experience is the best. Since this is a private server it is totaly free as aposted to the ones u see advertised on posters and such.
