I'm not so sure that anyone is making good maps anymore. Although many people may hate me saying this.

Since ACK stopped making normal ren maps there haven't really been any other good maps made that have become popular. I don't always agree with him but I do like most of the maps he made apart from that Eglin (Or whatever it was) base map. That just sucked (I know u just wanted to make a map of where you knew so no flaming please)

There are a few good maps up there but also remember that these are the AOW only maps, there will be another poll for flying maps etc.
