WalrusHa, just take it on the chin. This is the interweb (or the information super highway for you cool people out there), every one flames (but i'm just not very good at it)! and every one gets flamed.

You started too many pointless topics, and many of them just didn't make much sense. Also, that topic about being hacked, trust me, that's one of those things you should have kept under your hat.

And yes, I am not just Bob, I am Pro Bob...

It was Incognito that was hacked, no?
