I'm in the middle moving appartments, and brenbot is in the middle of a near total rewrite thanks to the new permission and plugin system. Addtionally to that, I am being slammed with real work.

I just have no time to finish it, and noone else is doing it. It will be ready for Core Patch 2, though.

So, unless some miracle happens and someone donates me addtiional time each day, I'm afraid its gonna stay like that for a while. At least until I find free time, and have the motivation to continue..
