j_ball430That was one of the first questions I had in my mind. When I read the article, I wondered why the hell j4S[p] had "LOL" in the title. This incident is just disturbing.

Well think of it this way, 6 years from now befriend one of the kids and everytime he goes to the bathroom make sure you have a teacher go with him.

Ah that would make for some funny times.

In fact 6 years from now i would like to talk to one of those guys.
