you have been typing "mis-spelt" and such, when it's misspelled(proper). Do i have to tell you each time that you are not typing right? No. In my eyes i see typing "are", r, better than misspelling a word you should know. I have many doubts people who spell it "r" do not know how to spell it. It's probably 50/50 that people can type just as well as most or even better than nazis like you. Yet, they don't. So you can complain and 'laugh' at their, quote, "stupidity" for writing it that way as long as you want. The fact that it "annoys" you so much I don't see why they should have to. Besides that it's pretty low to go complain about how a person types. I mean do you really sit here and want to correct every "r" and "u" you see? If so be my guest. As a favour on any post you see, can you rewrite it without "u"s, and "r"s so that every person who get annoyed and are incapable of reading them? At least that way you will be contributing to solve the problem instead of whining about it.

Oh and I was pointing out that you have a leet cheating section in your site
