This is not an arguement. Never was never will be. I am not going to start, an arguement either. I am not crying. I am "stating" a topic that has been on my mind. It is an "opinion", nothing else. I am supporting all the other people who don't like Renguard, and I also support BHS for doing a good deed that so many poeple like. BHS deserves alot of credit for this as they are kicking EA's ass. No arguement, no crying. Just that you are a person who can't accept an opinion and just leave it at that. Obviously, if anyone said that they don't like Renguard, you would be all over their case about it. You may like Renguard, that all right with me, but I am not not like and bash your opinions. Case closed.
