Aircraftkiller! I'm still waiting for you to add something to that Refinery. When it gets a functional looking interior it might actually be a decent structure, but knowing Reborn anything you do will make it end up sucking like always.

It's under work. Anyway, you did not read my posts I think. :rolleyes: Go back some posts above. Or maybe you ignore my posts just because you can't say anything... I think so. When you don't know what to say, you ignore the post and try to talk about something else. Let me do the same then. Welcome back on ignore list.
