That was probably the nickname bug -- as one of the most well-known servers in Renegade, my server was targetted a LOT by CyberPrick and his friends. However, that bug has been fixed (Thanks Silent Kane) and now that won't happen.

FlyingFox -- you have been in this community long enough to know that "n00bstories" is the name of a website for writing stories about n00bs you encounter. It doesn't mean that the server is somehow intentionally filled with n00bs. Just because you pulled off some lucky/good maneuver in there doesn't mean shit.
