No, the best thing you can do is hit a BLOCK girl and then a STOP right after. A random special will happen, and it gives you less time to click on the screen than a normal special. It was awesome, I was just trying to beat 5,300, then all of a sudden I got something that made me bounce faster and harder everytime. By the end of the effect I'd gone up 800m a leap and way past 8,000.
