cokemaster56k and 'jetstream' which is really adsl 7mb downstream about 512kb upstream (so they say) so it costs about $700+ per month here for 5gb of it...

Telecom (the national telephone provider) is gay, since they virtually are the only ones supplying nation-wide high-speed internet

? Aussie ? If so, ditch tel$cum and give OzForces a try. If not just ignore me

** They don't use Tel$cum's wholesale crap so no bullshit limits. Bit expensive tho (for speed anyways) **
