Have you ever been in a game, where your the ONLY one defending, and when one of your buildings falls due to insufficent defenders, they all blame YOU because it fell? Doesnt that just piss you off? This is why i love Friendly Fire, and Friendly Fire on Halo, where you can just bash em in the back once, and they die. It pisses em off so bad, man its fun as hell! Ever just go into a server, and start firing at your allies? You would get banned eventually, but it can be fun if you fuck someone sniping up. DEATH THE MORONS! ...I think i should add that to my Signature...
