Ah ok. Hell, the forgetfulness thing happens to everyone. Especially me, unfortunately. Ive blown up a Microwave before by forgetting that metal doesnt go into it. It was Tin Foil, thank god, and not like a fork or anything. Its unfortunate that EA doesnt do anything about Renegade, since im sure that if they made "Renegade: Reborn" it would attract alot of people. Not as many as World of Warcraft, mind you, because on the very FIRST day it hit shelves, it sold over 1 billion copies.

*Begins rant about World of Warcraft, and Blizzard.*
