Cyberpunk is a perfect example of one of those people whose has talent but uses it for dickish things. He could have used it to better the community, but instead he decides to be a complete asshole and fuck around with everyone. He says "we" the community are n00bs/immature because we are doing what he did to us in return. (Dont take all this literally, Im speaking figuratively) Yes cyberpunk we're fucking immature cause we're the ones who exploited Renegade. We're the ones who fucked it up to the point where a program such as renguard would be needed to keep cheaters out of servers. You're the fucking n00bs who hacks. You're the fucking n00b who has no skill and decides that the only way you can win is to use hacks. Stop your bitching an deal with the consiquences. You've diserved this since day 1. You fucked all the die hard players in the ass, well guess what.... your getting fucked right back. What goes around, comes around bitch!!!!!
