After hardly 3 sentences of cyberpunk, i know that he is an idiot. He doesn't make sense at all, he doesn't want revenge and doesn't want to build up something. He doesn't want a community, not even one that would worship him. He just wants to destroy.

His only purpose in life is to destroy what others have build with such hard work. U mister, are an idiot and I pity you... One day in your life you will realise what you have done and you will think WTF HAVE I DONE but then it will be too late.

Grow up, leave us alone at our n00bish game like you call it. Go attack a more popular game rather than this one: you will touch more people.
