Why are you defending him? you hate cheaters worse than I do. Hell, you have a list of them with literally hundreds of cheaters usernames on it. Not to mention, what if he does this to the UN servers Noddy? You thrive in that place, don't defend him in wanting to dismantle it.

I will defend him as a person, but as for his actions' for crashing servers' I do not. Now yes I do have a extreme talent for catching cheaters' considering I have been doing it for 6 years' on many diffrent games'. Now, if you put 1 and 1 together Gbull you will see that Cyberpunk is a key part of the equation to the cycle of cheating. He makes them, and tells n00bies how to cheat. Then I step in, and take care of them.

I don't, and never have said I hate cheaters' (There is only one thing is this world that I "hate", and that is Homophobes). I very much enjoy them. Catching them is a great hobby/sport.

Without Cyberpunk you only have a few lower grade cheat makes that only strive to make the perfect uncatchable cheat. However he strives to make the perfect mass destruction cheat.

I admit, I do enjoy the ones that are harder to catch, but I also enjoy Cyberpunk's cheats. It really shows those n00bs that yell cheater all the time what real cheating really is.

People think it is so horrible, but when it comes right down to it, I bealive that it is a wonderful way to relax. Catching them, hunting them, toying with them. I do not find UC to be a bad thing. There are a couple of the things' they do, like crash servers', and stuff I highly disagree with.

UC may find me to be a pain, but if they really looked at it. I am someone that has made them pull there efforts up to make better, and more undetectable cheats'. So we sorta "work together" in a way.

PS: Anything else will just make alot of fuss, about me defending the "enemy", but I am not. Nor am I defending any other actions'. If you read, you will see my part on it.

This just does it! Why do people hate me? I make cheats. I exploit what is there to be discovered. What do you people want? Running servers and do no moderation. Could you guys stop my cheating? YES! How come non00bs was able to stop me many times (not 100% but enough to make me go quit it)? Because they are smart enough. Now the only thing is people want to run servers, put RG on it and leave it be. Make some players that nearly or never had any experience moderators and thats it.

And then there are these little kids: Spoony, Jball, Gbull.
I don't know whats wrong with these people, but whatever I say that makes common sense and they don't like it, they don't reply on it. Only on the stuff they could stand chance on... those things they bring up but nothing else. I got already got people telling at some posts it makes very sense.

And yet again, this reply (just about every reply) I will receive the same negative comments again and again and again from those three guys.

Stfu you guys I don't even read your stupid posts if I see them I just keep scrolling on cause it only contains bullshit.

The only thing that made me go on and keep to myself I will take all servers down is because of guys like this. I was even thinking to just quit it because of most people's reply. But then I see replies like those of Spoonny & Jball which just aren't right and makes me go on no matter what.
