And believing that there is no "heaven" is as weird as to believe in it...

We just don't know what will happen after death...

"I am not religious..." What does this mean? You don't believe in Jesus, fine me too. There is a bigger thing than religion: The way life really works, and you got absolutely no clue about it...

So your fucking cat just rots in the mud, I guess.

Btw: Our dog killed a dog last month, they are always pissing in death struggle, what an ugly smell.

Cheers...

Sorry. I don't speak retardese. Can you get someone to translate into meaningful English before you post, please? Your post is an orgy of stultifying cacophonous verbal depravity; an exercise in literary impotence, and an offense to all of good taste and decency.

The Anti-Moron™ software on my PC went crazy when I started to read your post. You wouldn't know a clue if it walked up to you, bit you on the ass, and announced 'I AM A CLUE'. Oh well, at least you only charge what your free advice is worth. I am reminded of something relevant that Benjamin Disraeli said: "He was distinguished for ignorance - for he had only one idea and that was wrong."

When god was handing out personalities, you must have been holding the door. You're so boring, even a boomerang wouldn't come back to you. I'd get more pleasure from running my nostrils down a cactus, than reading another contribution from you. Any friend of yours is a lousy judge of character. Seriously, I've come across decomposing dog carcasses that are less offensive to the senses than you are. Maybe you wouldn't come across as such a dumbass if you weren't living proof that stupid people should not breed; if you weren't so fat that the Brooklyn Bridge would collapse if you ever tried to go Bungee Jumping off of it, or if your face wasn't the strongest form of natural contraception available. Nah, of course you would.

In closing, why don't you put your glasses on backwards and walk into yourself?
