Yes, i was one of the people that originally created server side mods. I agree with you that things like CCTF or Crazy AOW, with their ob guns, god characters, flying infantry, are pretty stupid. But a normal BALANCED server side mod without that crap adds alot of variety to the game. Ive played ren since it came out, and after almost 2 years the regular gameplay got pretty boring, which is why we started making server side mods, to add new things that change the gameplay.
