Deafwasp[REHTSpirit]DeafwaspBullcrap man, I aint saying rip off I am saying those maps had to have influenced his design.

*ahh!* ripoff *choooooo!*

Ok, sorry about that part, but if it's just influence then what's the need for rolling your eyes at him..? Heck how do you even know if that map was influenced by ACK's map? Just because his map came before Titan's...?

Shut the fuck up guy, you don't have to pick at every little thing everyone says.

You have to admit it reminds you of ACK's map/s. it even has a little area with plants growing. I wouldnt be surprized to see red spray paint on the walls and windows into space. It just resembles it a bit.

I'm not trying to sound cruel and all but really, it just seems like everyone acts like things revolves around ACK. The slightest thing and BAM "Y0u s700pid! Y0u r1p 1t off ACK! j00 f00!". I need to stop reading every post, lol.

But I am curious, why everyone just looks at screens instead of the whole thing. The goto a post, look at a screen, pop up with this. But when you play the map there's not all of that stuff. Here ya don't have paintings on the walls, in fact half the textures are ones from the Renegade Texture Package.

And I'm not jumping on everyone's little word, I know it can seem like that, but not really trying to, I'm just looking for answers.
