Firstly, wreckages do not tally against your total vehicle count. Secondly, if the person(or persons) doing this were able to actually convince everyone on their team in a 16-on-16 game to Light Tank Rush, the other team would be throughly screwed. At least two buildings would be goin' down in that rush. I know. We did a Light Tank Rush on Field once and knocked out the opposing team's AGT and almost nuked their Refinery. It was fun.
