i changed my name from DeMoN#GW to ToM#GW and it came up with the same message, new cd key..still banned..plz can u just unban me >< thats like 2 cd keys i acnt use now..and i didnt even get banned for a good reason, if i was actually cheating or trying to bypass renguard i would swallow and accept it, BUT I DIDNT DO NOTHING!!!!!!

and tbh i will agen say, im not really going to donate to a program that i cannot use also mac, ive read all the topics, why u always ask ppl for money? what can u do with money? nothing, its software u can make, u dont have to buy it do you? we have to buy the game and when u get banned for nothign u get pretty pissed of tbh. im all guns blazing for anti cheats, but if anti cheating has come to the point its costing players money all the time...not being able to use anti cheating software, its not for the good. it seems like u ban ppl to get them to donate money to u..but thats my opinion, what are your view on this hm?

tomten told me to speak to u and said u might be a nice guy about it, but i havent seen anything so far...he said its stupid to get banned for what i got banned for..and he used to be on the rg team.

BTW, r u in KosS, coz i used to play against them, like a yr ago they were pretty good, what are they like now?

TBH i wish i never registered on this forum this morning, coz id be playing a cw atm..
