war wasn't imminent at any time. he was supposed to declare weapons by dec. 8. when we saw him lying again, we started building up. we then waited almost 4 months longer before attacking. all along we told him come clean or be attacked. at any time he could have come forth and said "ok, i want what's best, here is what you wanted" he didn't do that, instead he continued his same old bullshit.

personally, i don't care if he had the weapons or not... we should have attacked simply because of what he was doing to his people. hell, milosevic(sp?) did far less to his people and yet clinton was "justified" in attacking him.

if ther were no oil in iraq, would the tree huggers still be complaining about the war? my opinion is... NO!

they complained only because we have a republican president and ther is oil in iraq so they can use it as an excuse to complain about the guy they don't want in office.
