i am new to renegade and just signed up at westwood online a few days ago. my brother set up everything for me because i didnt know what i was doing. the first few times i logged in rengaurd worked fine. my name on it is speedie48. after that it says that i have been banned for trying to bypass for the name hendrick9. i know this is the name that my brother uses but i have no way to talk to him for about 2 more weeks because he is starting back at college. id like to know how to get unbanned so that i can play the game. thank you for anything that you can tell me. any help from you would be greatly appreciated.
