our servers are down. Getting a new server so the site might be down another week or two. While Im the only person in GDE usually in these forums, talk to [GDE]AngryC4Killer. Add him to playerspy and he'll give you honest feedback. If your good, he'll tell you you are, but if your terrible, you'll know that too.

The UN clan is currently recruiting, but they are more of a "be our bud type of clan". Not one that is about clanwars particularly.
