Well, I can't say that I've made the skin I wanted. . . However, I did manage to make this. It really is pretty, and it's not really all that much brighter than the normal Stealth skin. . . I think I'll make this my normal Stealth skin from now on, unless I'm playing in a Pure server. If anyone claims it makes Stealhed units more visible, then I'll shrink it down to half size(though I'd prefer not to, considering how pretty it looks as it is. It's an all-around win situation, really.

Also, I never should'a found that PhotoShop DDS plugin. I've been making all sorts of weird-ass Stealth skins I'll never use. Rainbows, smiley faces, bright white, "random" colors, rainbow, a freaking Stealth Black Hand Skin skin. . . I've been making all sorts of weird ones.
