Listen here, Skippy. Everyone has, at one point, used the Ramjet. This does not imply that everyone cheats. I use the Ramjet when my team has taken over the enemy base, like, say, we have atleast 4 tanks in there, and they aint doin so hot against them. At that point, yes, i may consider using it just for the basic infantry that scurry around. Since you has that using the Ramjet is cheating, are you saying that cheat, because i rarely use it? If so, then why havent i been caught by Renguard? Crimson can possibly vouch for me on this, the most illegal thing ive had, was a bunch of skins that werent allowed by Renguard.

Now dont complain about the fuggin Ramjet Rifle, especially if you get killed by one. The people who use it put themselves and their Credits at risk by using it, since it fires fuggin tracer rounds. If you think that they should be considered cheating because they use the overly powerful Sniper weapon, then i have but one thing to say to you: Nobody cares.
