What th'. . . When was I nominated? Just now? No, don't nominate me. I can't be trusted with power unless there's something there with it to distract me. Like when I'm temp-Modded in Renegade. Usually I'm too busy playing to do much about retards, but if someone's actually cheating, I'll stop what I'm doing and go through the usual process of detecting and testing if the person in-question is cheating.
