ra2 has more players...?

last time i played TS, 0 players were there...

last time i played YR, around 75 players, not counting in game ones

TS=dead

Whopty fuggin doo. Who was talking about players, i was talking about how fun it was. I havent played TS online in over four years, and ive never played YR online. You know where i got my Renegade name from? Its my old TS name. Its 6 years old. The Westwood databases kept it.
